

Aging and Disability Services

Area Agency on Aging for Seattle and King County

Promoting quality of life, independence, and choice for older people and adults with disabilities in Seattle-King County

AAA 101: An overview of the purpose, structure, and work of the King County Area Agency on Aging

Workshop Objectives

- Understand the National, State, and local structure for funding and service provision for older adults
- Learn about the work of Aging & Disability Services and its Area Plan
- Hear about upcoming initiatives that will impact agencies and older adults in King County

AAA's Across the Nation

- AAAs were nationally established in the 1973 Older Americans Act (OAA)
- AAAs are the "on the ground" organizations charged with helping vulnerable older adults live with independence and dignity within their communities.

All AAAs play a key role in a wide range of long-term services and supports

National Aging Network

- ❑ The Older Americans Act (OAA) empowers the federal government to distribute funding to serve individuals over the age of 60
- ❑ The Administration on Aging (AoA) is the federal agency designated to carry out OAA activities
- ❑ AoA works through the national aging network of 56 State Units on Aging, 655 Area Agencies on Aging, and 236 Tribal and Native organizations.

Administration for Community Living (ACL)

- Recent push to support older adults as well as people with disabilities across the lifespan.
- In 2012, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created a new organization, the Administration for Community Living (ACL).

- Combines the efforts of the Administration on Aging, the Administration on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities, and the Health and Human Services (HHS) Office on Disability

State Level Network

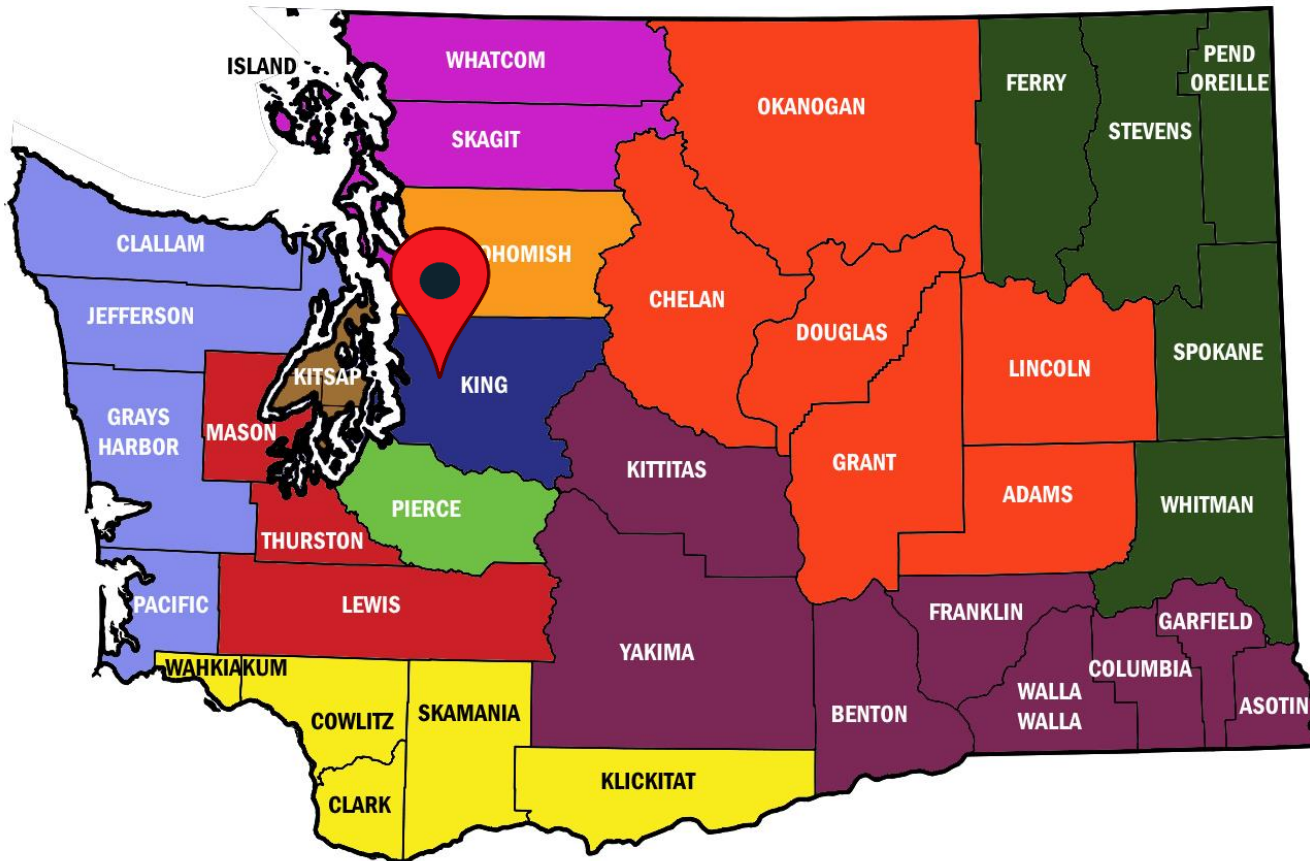

- Federal OAA funding is allocated to each state based on the number of persons 60 years and older

- Aging and Long Term Services and Supports (ALTSA) Administration is Washington's State Unit on Aging and grants funds to the local AAAs.

- In King County, the AAA serves a single county.
- In some other parts of the state, the AAA is a multi-county organization.

National and State Advocacy

- The National Association of Area Agencies on Aging (N4A) represents Area Agencies on Aging in the nations capital.
- The Washington Association of Area Agencies on Aging (W4A) work with local AAAs
- Both organizations:
 - Set national and state-level priorities
 - Raise the visibility of AAAs
 - Offer training and educational events
 - Drive quality improvement and innovation

Local Aging Network

- ❑ The AAA is granted the ability to adapt to its local service area
- ❑ AAAs contract with local service providers to deliver many direct services, such as meals and transportation
- ❑ Some are direct providers of services, such as case management

What's on the horizon?

Medicaid Transformation Waiver

- Building better systems for delivering whole-person care through community and health system partnerships.
- Expanding options for how we serve those with long-term care needs.
- Providing our most vulnerable populations with the supports they need to get and stay healthy.

The 1115 Waiver's 3 Initiatives

- ❑ Initiative 1: Transformation projects through Accountable Communities of Health
- ❑ Initiative 2: Long Term Services & Supports
- ❑ Initiative 3: Supportive housing and supported employment

Increased Options for Medicaid Services

□ Medicaid Alternative Care (MAC)

- Caregiver support funded with Medicaid dollars
- Caregiver must be unpaid
- Flexible budget used to purchase services
- Care receiver (client) must meet functional eligibility requirements and be enrolled in a Medicaid program
- Care receiver must be 55+
- No participation or estate recovery

Increased Options for Medicaid Services

□ Tailored Services for Older Adults (TSOA)

- Personal care and other supports for individuals 55+ who are “at risk” of future Medicaid LTSS use
- Flexible budget used to purchase services
- Client must meet functional eligibility requirements and be enrolled in a Medicaid program
- No participation or estate recovery

January 2017 Implementation

- ❑ MAC and TSOA will be available in Washington state in January 2017.
- ❑ Aging network providers can help get the word out to older adults who may benefit from these programs.
